Dates, Deadlines and Other Good Stuff to Remember

✓ Friday, October 10, 2008 Registration Deadline (Late Registrants Accepted)

✓ Friday, October 17, 2008 The Big Front Yard Campout

4:00 P.M. (or as soon as dad gets home) Front Yard Neighborhood Camp Set-Up: Dads will “pitch their work and their tents” and set up camp in their own front yards with the help of their kids and neighbors. Some neighbors will merge campsites for twice the fun! Dads and kids are responsible for making this their most memorable evening of the year. Some families with toddlers will set up camp inside their homes. NOTE: There is no rain date! Dads are solely responsible for the safety of their families. Moms and Grandparents are welcome too! TURN OFF YOUR SPRINKLERS!

5:30 P.M. 7:00 Glen Meadows Park Kick-Off Event: Join us for MAGIC, MUSIC, ICEY COLD DRINKS, PUMPKINS, PANSIES, THE MAYORAL PROCLAMATION, VISITS FROM THE PLANO POLICE & FIRE DEPARTMENTS AND MORE...

7:00 P.M. Your Own Front Yard Food Feast: Make your food feast a memorable and special occasion with a few old recipe favorites and one new food tradition that is dad’s secret formula. Some neighbors will form small groups for a camp-side potluck. Others will invite grandma and grandpa or an old friend from another neighborhood, town, state or country. Consider a family reunion of several generations.

✓ Saturday, October 18, 2008

7:30–8:30 A.M.– Glen Meadows Park Breakfast: Our Friends at Prestonwood Country Club will once again provide Coffee, Orange Juice and Pastry Breakfast Feast in Glen Meadows Park
