

DADS IN THE HOOD¹⁷ ANNUAL

October 21, 2011

Dads in the Hood Always the 3rd Friday in October

“Dads in the Hood” is a grassroots fatherhood initiative that honors and promotes personal and community commitment to the role of fatherhood.

4:00 P.M. Front Yard Neighborhood Camp Set-Up: Dads will “pitch their work and their tents” and set up camp in their own front yards with the help of their kids and neighbors. Some neighbors will merge campsites for twice the fun! Dads and kids are responsible for making this their most memorable evening of the year. NOTE: There is no rain date! Dads are solely responsible for the safety of their families. Moms and Grandparents are welcome too! Remember to turn off your sprinklers.

5:30 P.M. 7:00 Glen Meadows Park Kick-Off Event: Join us at the park for music, magic, bounce houses, visits with our local fire and police units, the reading of the Mayoral proclamation and our twilight puppet-show (Pete Seeger’s Abiyoyo Tale).

7:00 P.M. Your Own Front Yard Food Feast: Make your food feast a memorable and special occasion with some joint planning with the kids. Some neighbors will form small groups for a camp-side potluck...others will invite grandparents and old friends. Consider a family reunion to include several generations.

Saturday 7:30-8:30 AM: Join us at the gazebo in the park for hot coffee, donuts, juice and some fun stories about the night of camping fun!
